25TH ANNIVERSARY FACT

Achen-Gardner Construction (AGC) is a company with modest beginnings. In 1989, Achen-Gardner Engineering (which is now AGC) shared office space with Farmers Insurance in Chandler and also worked part time out of another office in the City of Casa Grande. Early employees, including AGC President Dennis Troggio, would take their computers home at the end of each day, not knowing where they would be going to work the next day. This continued for six months until full-time office space was acquired in Chandler. In 1995, AGC moved to a new office in Chandler (pictured below), and in 2012 we established an office in Tucson.

2014 Roads & Streets Conference

Achen-Gardner sponsored and hosted the Closing Reception and Trade Show Drawing at the 63rd Annual Conference on Roads & Streets on April 17th. Dan Spitz, Achen-Gardner Vice President and Co-Owner, was the MC for the event and called out the names of attendees who were drawn for a prize. Since it is our 25th Anniversary this year, we planned a special celebration where all attendees received free beer and some prize winners received Achen-Gardner 25th Anniversary hats, shirts, and flash drives.

The conference, held at the JW Marriott Starr Pass Resort in Tucson, AZ on April 16-17, is the largest annual event for Arizona engineers, contractors and their vendors, from both the public and private sectors. Approximately 1,400 attendees and 100 exhibitors participated in the 2014 conference. Visit our website for more photos and information.
